

Making the Match:
The Key to the College Admissions Process
A Talk by Dr. Gay Stebbins Pepper

Parents and students are often confused by the highly competitive college admission process. Dr. Pepper will present and discuss twenty basic questions to ask while undergoing the college search process that will help clarify a student's needs and goals.

Discussion questions will include:

- What's best for me - a liberal arts college, or a large university?*
- How do I compare the academic strengths of one college to another's?*
- How do I judge my chance of acceptance at a particular college?*
- Do character and community service count? Or is it all about numbers?*
- What if I have a strength that does not appear on the transcript?*
- How important are standardized tests? What tests do the colleges require?*
- With college costs spiraling, what strategies can help reduce costs?*

TUESDAY, MARCH 16th at 7:00pm

in the Bronxville Public Library Yeager Room

Open to High School Students and Adults

This program is free. Register in person at the Library or by phone: 914-337-7680

Dr. Pepper worked as Associate Dean of Admission at the University of Pennsylvania for five years before becoming a college counselor. She served as counselor for 23 years in leading secondary schools including The Dalton School (NYC). She was the founder and director of The Scholar's Workshop (PA) in 1980 before founding College and More, Inc. (CT) in 2005. Dr. Pepper concentrates on high school students who seek admission to colleges that fit their talents and needs.
