Collection Description

The Bronxville History Center

The collection is organized into four series based on type of media:

The Videos series, 1984-2018, includes thirty-four discs containing One Square Mile programs featuring Bronxville Mayor Mary Marvin (2006-2018), as well as discs and videocassettes of programs and public events relating to Bronxville and Eastchester and featuring Nancy Vittorini, Richard Forliano, Eloise Morgan, Judy Foley, Jack Paar, Robert Riggs and Marilynn Hill, and others.

The Sound Recordings series, 1980-1989, 1996, includes recordings featuring Lucia Meigs Andrews, Jean Bartlett, Charles Copenhauer, Corky Frost, Dudley Lawrence, Jr., Hester Meigs Whitehouse Lytle, Robert Stout, Daniel Topping, Lucretia Whitehouse, and others. There is currently no descriptive information available for these sound recordings other than the person or people featured on each one.

The Photographs series, 1979, 2000-2004, includes about ninety photographs showing Bronxville School students engaged in school activities in 2002; seventy-five photographs from an "Architectural Walking Tour" given by Thomas P. Matthews, Jr. in 1979; thirty-one photographs, taken in 2002, showing flowers, trees, dogs, and a Bronxville house; and thirteen photographs showing artist Will Low and examples of his work.

The Documents series, 1964, 1997, 2008-2013, includes two items relating to Bronxville School and 131 columns written by Max McGrath, 2008-2013, for the online publication, My Hometown Bronxville.
